

To new junior class students and parents

Thank you for enrollment in YITC Tennis School.

As a general rule, please pay the lesson fee by an automatic deduction from your designated bank account.

※Payment also can be made by cash or bank transfer by yourself.

Please fill in your information in the bold frame of the "Bank Account Transfer Request Form/Automatic Deduction Application Form" that we have given you this time, and please affix the seal of your financial institution and return the first and second copies by postal mail with the prepaid return envelope.

If you are unable to pay in time for the automatic deduction, please pay your lesson fee by yourself through bank transfer (see below as for the designated YITC bank account).

■Automatic deduction date: The 27th day of every month (or the next business day if the day falls on a bank holiday)

As a general rule, "MBS. シェユニヤレツスン" shall be displayed in Japanese on the bank book.

■Amount of automatic deduction: The amount of the lesson fee for a month in the YITC Junior Tennis School Fee list (enclosed).

※The amount of the automatic deduction is charged for a month.

Meanwhile, cash or the bank transfer is charged for 2 months (1term).

※In case of class change, absence, or resignation, please be sure to submit the application form.

If you do not submit your class change, absence or resignation form by the due date, the lesson fee as is shall be automatically deducted from your bank account.
